Strauss, Esq., repre-ciation been well organized and had senting the company and Chariton Dus Rant, Esq., representing the subscribers, also talks by citizens, no agreeable settlement was reached. The railroad commission, who was asked to be here at this meeting was present. The subscribers withdrew their petition, and he telephone company entered one in their behalf, asking for the raise of fifty cents per phone, also for toll rates. The commission then had to give thirty days notice of this hearing, and it will be had on November 28th. The subscribers feel that this raise is unjust and they will not pay it, and if the Commission decides in favor of the telephone company, we fear the trou-ble will be far from settled then.

A QUESTION OF CITIZENSHIP.

Just at this time the question of neutrality is claiming much attention, and the matter of the altitude of our government toward the warring nations of the Old World is one of deep concern. And owing to the fact that our government has had to settle some knotty international disputes arising from the war, a rather mixed up condition of affairs is prevailing in this coun-

The disputes with Germany and England have developed a pro-German and an anti German element, a pro. British and an anti-British. We are told that we must concede every claim of Germany or lose the sympathy of the German Americans. We are also told we must conciliate Britian or alienate a large Anglo American element.

Now the thought that natural ly occurs to the patriotic American is. What is the attitude of these various elements toward our government? Are they Amercan citizens or aliens? That is a question to be settled.

If this pro German or pro-British element with whose vengeance we are threatened, are aliens-not American citizensthen their likes and dislikes are of small concern to us. If they do not like our attitude let them go back to their own country. If, on the other hand, they are

Strange that otherwise kindhearted and humane people will persist in "punishing" the crim inal, even after he has paid the uttermost farthing of his penal-

Why can not we all see that allegiance of their manhood lies the logical end of law is not to punish but to reform the evil-

Pause a moment and consider that word "punish." Doesn't it smack too much of vengeance. And who ever heard of venge ance reforming a transgressor? so completely broken the poor wretch that he has lost the power of resentment we may consid us from such reformation.

Plant Rye and Bur Clover!

You cannot afford to lose this golden chance to hedge against high priced fertilizers next year and Bol! Weevil invasion about year after next.

We are offering the finest Winter Rye Seed you ever saw. Put them us der a microscope and note how perfect ank plump these S-eds are, how few are broken and their freedom from trash or foreign matter. Ask the numbers people who bought our Rye Se'ds and have a good stand, now what they think of it. Our Rye is positively of as high germanating quality as money can buy. It is head and ears above the average Rye Seed, and for the wise farmer, who values his time and figures his land worth some hing, this Rye would bcheap at 25 per cent more than we ask for it, but when we sell it for just about the same as the kind 'nor quite so good," there is no reason why any farmer should take chances and miss a good crop Our price is $2 a bushel.

Plant Bur Clover.

We have only about too bushels left from a recent shipmont of this wonderful land builder and pasture maker. Start Bur Clover on your place if you can get the seeds-Don't let a whole long year go by. Prices have advanced, and Bur Clover is very scarce but this is no argument against planting it. Price $1 25 per bushel,
